Notes

Check rooms. Check rooms for the convenience of out of town guests are provided in the lobby of the auditorium.

Registration. All who are in attendance are desired to register as soon as possible after reaching the city in order that they may receive the souvenir of the occasion. A registration bureau will be maintained in the main reading room on the second floor.

Place of meetings. All the exercises, except the reception on Wednesday evening, will be held in the auditorium, the entrance to which is from Hawk street. Admission to the auditorium and to the reception will be by ticket only.

Cap and gown. The academic cap and gown will be welcomed at any time. It is especially desired that the academic costume be worn in the dedicatory procession of Thursday afternoon, but attendance at no function will be conditioned upon its use. Provision has been made for the rental of caps and gowns at room 124.

Reception. At the reception on Wednesday evening the receiving line will be in the rotunda on the second floor. Refreshments will be served on the fourth floor. Guests arriving by automobile or carriage will be admitted to and will depart from the Swan street entrance. Others are expected to use the main entrance from Washington avenue. Admission by ticket only.

Dedicatory procession. Those participating in the dedicatory procession on Thursday afternoon will meet at two o'clock in the rooms of the Regents, the Commissioner of Education, and the Assistant Commissioners on the west corridor of the main floor. The procession will form in the corridor and pass out at the Swan street exit and move down Washington avenue to Hawk street and pass into the auditorium. The order of procession will be: Grand Marshal, William Verbeck, Adjutant General of the State of New York and President of St John's Military Academy at Manlius; the Governor and staff, the United States Senators from New York, former Governors of New York and other speakers, officiating clergymen, the Chancellor of the University and the Commissioner of Education of New York State, members of the Board of Regents, delegates representing foreign institutions in order of founding, the United States Commissioner of Education, state superintendents of education, delegates representing American institutions in order of founding, representatives of state normal schools, city superintendents and members of boards of education, village superintendents, district superintendents, high school principals.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT

Post Card

ALBANY, N. Y.

Had the pleasure of being in Albany during the dedication of The Educational Building; my but it was a grand sight! By the way, this building has the largest colonnade in the world and is a fine piece of architectural design. The Argus' Albany's new one-cent newspaper carries all the dedication news. Back numbers will be mailed to any address. Under another cover I am mailing to you The Argus of to-day's issue.
